

The Destination for Male Dancers

Are you a male dancer looking for world class-training with top faculty? Look no further than Interlochen Arts Academy. Our year long high school dance program offers an immersive experience where you can hone your skills, build camaraderie, and prepare for your future in dance.

UNPARALLELED PERFORMANCE OPPORTUNITIES

Step into the spotlight and bring iconic roles to life in two full-length story ballets each year, allowing you to showcase your skills in soloist and ensemble roles.

TECHNIQUE CLASSES

Master your craft with specialized male classes, tailored to help you reach your full potential. Refine your jumps and turns to build virtuoso technique that meets the demands of today's male dancer.

PARTNERING CLASSES

Learn the art and skill of pas de deux with dedicated classes focused on partnering techniques and graceful coordination.

DANCER-SPECIFIC CONDITIONING

Access our state-of-the-art gym facilities and attend semesterly seminars on bodybuilding, strength, and conditioning specifically designed for dancers. Develop the strength and agility needed to excel on stage.

OUTSTANDING CAMARADERIE

Find healthy competition and teamwork as you train alongside fellow male dancers in a supportive and challenging environment.

EXPERIENCED FACULTY

Work with Director of Dance Joseph Morrissey, who has performed with the Boston Ballet and the Bavarian State Ballet in Germany, and now adjudicates competitions from Paris to Tokyo—plus other outstanding instructors.

GIFTED GUEST ARTISTS

Learn from talented dancers like Herman Cornejo (principal dancer, American Ballet Theatre) and Alexei Moskalenko (former dancer, Bolshoi Ballet Grigorovich).

Interlochen provides specialized training for young male dancers, empowering them to achieve excellence in their art form. In addition to Arts Academy, we also offer one- and three-week dance programs at Interlochen Arts Camp.
