Katy Ambrose is Assistant Professor of Horn at the University of Iowa. From 2015-21 she was on faculty at the University of Virginia, and Principal Horn of the Charlottesville Symphony. Ambrose's extensive orchestral experience includes having held positions in many regional orchestras throughout the United States and substituting with major ensembles such as the Boston Pops, Philadelphia Orchestra, Kansas City Symphony, Daejeon Philharmonic, Hawai'i Symphony, Richmond Symphony, and the Virginia Symphony. A dedicated chamber musician, she is a founding member of the Lanta Horn Duo and was a co-founder of Seraph Brass. Ambrose spends her summers in Northern Michigan teaching at the Bay View Music Festival, and previously at the Curtis Institute of Music Young Artists Summer Program, and the (now-defunct) All-State program at Interlochen Arts Camp. Dr. Ambrose received her Doctor of Musical Arts from Temple University, Artist Diploma from Yale University, master's from Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music, and bachelor's from the University of Michigan. Ambrose lives in Iowa City with her husband Carsten, a software engineer and amateur violinist, their twin sons, and cat, Milo.

You can ensure the next promising young artist has the opportunity to come to Interlochen by supporting student scholarships. Make your gift to the Interlochen Annual Fund by visiting www.interlochen.org/giveonline.

Many of our venues are equipped with induction loop systems for the hearing impaired.

Please ask one of our ushers if you need assistance connecting to the system.

Support for recent upgrades to these systems provided by Michigan Arts and Culture Council; the NEA; Rotary Charities of Traverse City; the Les and Anne Biederman Foundation, Inc.; the Oleson Foundation; and Robert W. Anderson.

In consideration of the performing artists and other patrons, the use of flash photography is not permitted. Federal copyright and licensing rules prohibit the use of video cameras and other recording equipment.

In order to provide a safe and healthy environment, Interlochen maintains a smoke-free and alcohol-free campus. Michigan law prohibits any weapons, including concealed weapons, on Interlochen property because we are an educational campus.

Thank you for your cooperation.
